

GARDENING WORKSHOPS FOR TEACHERS 2009-2010

Aim of workshop

- Support teachers in developing and using school gardens
- To develop and improve knowledge and understanding of gardening

Outcomes:

This one day course will -

Provide you with ideas covering all aspects of vegetable gardening.

Help you design garden spaces and planting patterns to facilitate learning in your outdoor classroom including beneficial insect gardens and food forests.—
The Garden as a living laboratory

Connect the sustainability dots—Biodiversity and the interrelations between children and garden organisms.

Show you how the Digital Blue microscope opens up a whole new world as we examine the soil food web.

Details of course:

Courses begin at 10:00am and finish at 4:00pm

Cost: $40.00

Each class is limited to 12 participants

Part of the day is spent outdoors so bring suitable footwear, and clothes

Participants bring something simple and healthy for a shared lunch

Payment is required before course date

Directions and homework will be sent 1 week before course date

Please register by phoning Dee:

on 09-444 9342 or email: dee@feedmeright.co.nz

FEED ME RIGHT

Share in Dee's passion for organic gardening, cooking and nutrition

Contact

Dee Pignéguy

dee@feedmeright.co.nz

www.feedmeright.co.nz

+64 9 444 9342